Participants of Sand Sea and Spirit Retreat 2009 may provide services and products for sale or trade. Anyone who offers services or products are considered participants.

This week is designed and planned to be a happy, healthy, learning and sharing experience. Everyone has something valuable and important to share. We ask that you remember to treat other participants, local residents and condo staff with courtesy and respect. Also please remember to honor the 10:00 p.m. nightly quite time.

As a participant of the Sand Sea and Spirit Retreat 2009, I agree to bring a positive attitude and treat others with courtesy, respect and consideration. My goal is to nourish myself with all that is offered and enjoy the process with all participants. I participate of my own free will and indemnify Sand Sea and Spirit - holding them free and clear of all claims and liabilities.

I acknowledge receipt of the participation agreement during registration. I confirm the personal information above is correct.
